Senator Haines, of Genoa, was in the city yesterday, along with some of his tall reminiscences of mountain travel. He departed for Chicago last evening, being one of the World's Fair Commissioners.

Virginia Chronicle: Ross Lewers, the chief apple rancher of Washoe valley, was in town yesterday. He says his crop was no better than two years ago, and attributes it to the McKinley tariff bill. Another sign of a cold winter.

Mr. Tobey, who advertised for his dog in the APPEAL had the animal speedily restored to him, and is now a happy man. If Mr. Tobey would advertise his lumber yard in the same way, he soon would have to erect another mill.

Carpenters are in demand just now in Truckee. Many persons who were burned out during the recent fire have had lumber for new buildings already brought on the ground and are anxious to build before the stormy weather sets in.

Taking the Veil.

A young lady on Monday last in this city went through the ceremony of taking the veil.

She happened however to take one belonging to another girl and the other girl called on her and accused her of it. There was some lively language for a few minutes and then the veil was returned to its original owner.

The taking was claimed to be accidental.

Masquerade.

On Thanksgiving night James Wiggins of Empire, who has established himself as a popular entertainer, will give a grand ball and supper at his dancing hall near the brink of the soft flowing Carson. Funeral of Joseph McGuire.

This morning at 10 o'clock there will be Solemn High Mass of Requiem celebrated for Mr. Joseph McGuire, at the Catholic Church, by Rev. Father Tubman of Virginia City, at which friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to be present.

He was an old resident of the Comstock, a partner of the late Wm. Mooney, and was well and favorably known throughout the State. Death was caused by miners' consumption.

A clean butcher shop goes far towards keeping the meat fresh. Flies will not gather where things are clean. M. O. Gardner, Jr., has just such a market, where the finest lamb, beef, mutton, pork, sausage, etc., can be secured at any time.

COAST NEWS.

James W. Easton was thrown from a wagon at San Jose Sunday, and fatally injured.

E. Snell of Seattle has been arrested and charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses.

Julius Stiascoen, a laborer at Seattle, was stabbed in the side with a pair of scissors, Sunday, by Joseph Simpson, a 16-year-old lad, who claimed that Simpson stole 5 cents from him.

The Judge at Victoria Sunday declined to sentence six miners who had been convicted a month ago of interfering with men at work in the Wellington mines. The men remain at liberty on their personal bond.

The United States District Court at Walla Walla, Wash., in a case where a woman sued election inspectors for damages for having deprived her of the right to vote, has decided that damages cannot be recovered in an action against election officers.

Mayor Harry white of Seattle was held up on the street by two footpads Monday night while on his way home. As soon as they recognized him the footpads made off without going through his pockets.

Railroad Commissioner James W. Rea was assaulted by Walter Gillespie, Secretary of the Light and Power Company at San Jose, Monday, and received severe scalp wounds. Serious results are apprehended. The trouble originated in stories circulated during the campaign about the Commissioner and business jealousies.

After an elaborate argument, pro and con, taking the time of the Superior Court three days and three nights, the suit brought by the McClatchys, proprietors of the Bee, against the Federated Trades and Typographical Union, was submitted Monday to Superior Judge Armstrong, at Sacramento, for decision. The case is taken under advisement. The decision is awaited with much interest by the coast labor unions.

Wants the Names.

MASON VALLEY, Nov. 9, 1890.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—In your issue of September 25th, also in that of October 24th, are articles pertaining to the Raymond murder and other murders that have been committed. Reference is also made to stolen money.

Now, why will not you give the names of the parties accused? There is a standing reward of four hundred and fifty dollars for the detection of the parties who committed the heinous crime.

Give the author's name and the name of the party accused, and oblige

Yours respectfully,

A. J. HOLLAND.

The parties furnishing the information to the APPEAL did not wish to shoulder the responsibility of having the names published, and under these circumstances the APPEAL did not care to.

The matter is now in the hands of detectives, who will probably be able to clear up the identity of the party who is guilty.

The Murder Mystery.

MERCED, Cal., Nov. 11.—The Ivett murder mystery still remains unsolved. The people are greatly excited and the wildest rumors are circulated. An inquest was held today, but nothing has been heard from Snelling, where it was held. It is said that three persons are suspected of the crime, and they are now being closely watched by detectives. Mrs. Ivett arrived from San Francisco last night and the funeral was held to-day.

LATER—The jury returned a verdict of "death by an unknown hand."

Turkey Shoot.

There will be a turkey shoot at Empire on Thanksgiving Day in front of Wiggins' Saloon. Distance 200 yards. Also chicken shoot with shot guns at 55 yards. You must kill the bird. Botsford, Hamilton and Blair will shoot any three men in Carson.

Masquerade.

There will be a grand ball on Thanksgiving night at Wiggins' Hall, Empire. It will be a regular masquerade. Costumes can be rented at the Hall.
